

COOPERSTOWN CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL

Linda Chesis, Artistic Director

Each summer, for the past decade, leading musicians from around the world have come to Cooperstown to share the joy of music-making in a beautiful setting.

This season offers the quality and variety audiences have come to expect from the Festival. Performances are held in intimate, acoustically excellent venues. The ballroom of the grand Otesaga Resort Hotel will be the setting for jazz vocalist Hilary Kole, our annual Flute Fest, and the zany comedy and musical talent of Igudesman and Joo. A baroque recital featuring lutenist Hopkinson Smith and countertenor Anthony Roth Costanzo will be held at the historic Christ Church. At the Farmers' Museum, a renovated stone barn will be the site of a Beer & Beethoven concert with the Daedalus Quartet, a Brahms and Beyond concert, and an all-Bach program featuring harpsichordist Bradley Brookshire. And, the happy clamor of our Family Music Fest again will ring through Templeton Hall, located in the heart of Cooperstown.

I also invite you to join us for our second annual Pro-Am Seminar, July 11-15, a true celebration of chamber music as a lifelong source of delight and inspiration.

We couldn't bring these performances to Cooperstown without the loyal and generous support of donors. Please consider making a tax-deductible contribution along with your ticket order to help ensure the Festival's vitality and success for years to come. Thank you.
